

If you're here because of your child's ear infection or breathing problems, smoking may be a cause.

Talk to your child's doctor about
quitting.

"Infants and young children are especially vulnerable to the poisons in secondhand smoke."

— Surgeon General's Report, 2006